As a kid, I never got to celebrate Christmas. But ever since this little Santa came into our life, it's become a ritual for us to cherish this most heartwarming time of the year.

I still remember Kabir's first Christmas when we were at a friend's place where we ordered Monginis Foods Pvt. Ltd.'s cake and their yummiest swiss rolls. I am not a fan of sweets but when it comes to celebrating festivals, I am all in to enjoy to the fullest. And that was also the first time when Kabir tasted the cake for the first time in his life 😞

In this photo, Kabir is just 4 months old. And on the same day, we also got to celebrate Christmas with the most amazing team of Prime Venture Partners.

Life is great when you get to celebrate it with the warmest and kindest set of people who make you feel HOME ❤️

I wish you all the happiest Christmas ever 🎄

And would love to know about your Christmas plans ✨
